Miss Lynum of Memphis, Tenn.
Honoree at Double Party.

Monday and Tuesday afternoons from 3 to 6 o'clock the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith, 1191 Taylor street, was the scene of two brilliant gatherings where a host of friends came to pay their respects to Miss Mary Lynum of Memphis, Tenn., the charming niece of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and to enjoy the proverbial hospitality of the Smith home. Beautiful decorations of carnations—red in the parlors and pink in the dining room—filled the rooms with their sweet fragrance. Forty-two was the game for Monday while the card players had an opportunity Tuesday afternoon to display their skill. The games throughout both days were extremely interesting. Later a dainty salad course was very much enjoyed. The guest list for Monday included Mesdames Sullenberger, Oiler, J. O. Curtis, J. W. Curtis, A. V. Curtis, T. O. Curtis, Anthony, Latney Barnes, Lee Bivins, Blanchard, Hendricks, Meador, C. Lowndes, Stanley, T. Turner, B. T. Ware, Russell, Phillips, L. H. Boyce, J. G. Mathews, W. Boyce, Durrett, C. T. "Beau-nots" With Miss Stella Weary.
The "Beau-nots" enjoyed one of the most charming meetings of the season with Miss Stella Weary yesterday afternoon at her home, 901 Van Buren street, from 3 to 6 o'clock. The afternoon's entertainment was heightened by beautiful Halloween favors, which were thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The score cards for the games of "500" that were played were tiny hand-painted pumpkin heads. Later dainty refreshments of chicken salad on lettuce leaves, sandwiches, pickles, hot coffee, wafers and fruit jelly with cream in pretty jack-o'-lantern orange cups were served. Those present were Misses Lucile Veale, Frankie Humphries, Carlisle Curtis, Margaret Sadler, Meta Lynn, Sophia Meyer, Edith Hutchins and Stella Weary.

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy Ever Used

Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply for 50c. Money Refunded if it Fails.

If someone in your family has an obstinate, deep-seated cough—even whooping cough—which has yielded slowly to treatment, buy a 50 cent bottle of Pinex and watch that cough vanish. If it fails, money back promptly, and without argument. A 50 cent bottle of Pinex, when mixed with home made sugar syrup, makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective cough remedy that money can buy, at a saving of 25¢. Gives instant relief and will usually wipe out a bad cough in 24 hours or less. Easily prepared in five minutes—directions in package. Pinex Cough Syrup has a pleasant taste—children take it willingly. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both good features. Splendid for croup, hoarseness, throat tickle, ineffectual lung troubles, and a prompt, successful remedy for whooping cough. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of Norway White Pine extract, and is rich in gualacal and other elements which are so healing to the membranes. Simply mix it with sugar syrup or strained honey, in a pint bottle, and it is ready for use. (Used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy.) Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HER BOOK DISTURBS SOCIETY

Princess Louise of Tuscany has published her book of memoirs, despite the efforts of persons in high places to have it suppressed. As was feared, the volume reveals many incidents and phases of European society and court intrigue that the persons concerned would much rather keep hidden from the world.

Mrs. Ray Wheatley
Hostess for Circle No. 1.

Mrs. Ray Wheatley was hostess yesterday afternoon for circle number 1 of the First Christian church, from 3 to 6 o'clock at her home, 810 Washington street. The afternoon was enjoyably spent with dainty needlework for the fall bazaar which the members of the church are planning.

The Buchanan street Mothers' club will meet at the school at the usual hour. A program is arranged for the afternoon including an address by Rev. Dr. Thomson, Central Presbyterian church.
